You and a group of friends go out for dinner at a local restaurant. Using a fake ID, you consume several drinks at the bar and when it's time to leave you decide that you're OK to make the 10-minute drive home; however, on your way home you lose control of your car and crash into another vehicle, instantly killing a 42-year-old mother of three. Rather than get behind the wheel that night, what were your other options? How should you be punished for your illegal and reckless actions? What, if anything, would have deterred you from getting behind the wheel?
